

Individualized Curriculum

Rija Siddiqui, MD

UTSW Residency Class of 2019

Early career interests: Health Disparities, Mental Health, Emergency Medicine

Electives

Psychiatry Consult Liaison: Rotated through psychiatry consult team to gain experience in obtaining mental health histories, specifically histories in post-suicide attempt patients admitted to pediatric teams

Outpatient Neurology: Exposed to a breadth of patients with primary neurological disease, including epilepsy, auto-immune encephalitis, neuromuscular conditions, and stroke. Gained understanding of complex neurological processes and management in clinic setting

Custom Research Elective: Dedicated time to carry out scholarly work as below as well as attend AAP Legislative Conference in Washington, D.C.

Trauma ICU Team: Worked closely with surgical services in care of critically ill patients with traumatic injuries, including TBI

Scholarly Work

Siddiqui, R; Nadeem, S; Menon, N; Nesiama, J. (June 2018). Ultrasound evidence of acute appendicitis in patient with hemolytic uremic syndrome. Journal of Emergency Medicine Case Reports: Accepted Manuscript. Department of Pediatric Emergency Medicine, University of Texas at Southwestern, Dallas, United States. .

Siddiqui, R. A Pediatrician's take: Empowering patients' healthcare outcomes through voting. TribTalk (Texas Tribune). 2018 July 26th.

Siddiqui, R. Utilizing Pediatric Continuity Clinics for Voter Registration. Oral Presentation: Pediatric Academic Societies, Baltimore, Maryland. 2019 April.

Post-Residency Career: Pursuing Psychiatry Residency