

Comprehensive Diabetes and Endocrinology Care

Ranked No.18 by U.S. News & World Report for Pediatric Diabetes and Endocrinology

18,000

annual total outpatient visits

10,500

annual unique patient visits

Game-changing research

17 active research studies

1st study of a novel androgen synthesis inhibitor (abiraterone acetate) in children with congenital adrenal hyperplasia (CAH)

Diabetes Advisor App
2019 Digital Diabetes Congress Mobile App of the Year

700 downloads

100+ patient account registrations

Multidisciplinary team of experts

17 Pediatric Endocrinologists

5 Advanced Practice Nurses

9 Certified Diabetes Educators

State-of-the-art programs

- Center for Obesity and its Consequences in Health (COACH)
- Cystic Fibrosis-Related Diabetes
- Diabetes
- GENder Education and Care Interdisciplinary Support (GENECIS)
- General Endocrinology
- Lipid Disorders
- Thyroid Cancer

Powerful outcomes

- 80+ patients on hybrid closed-loop insulin pump therapy, achieving 65.5% time-in-range
- Partnerships with local independent school districts to improve diabetes outcomes
- 40% type 1 diabetes patients on pump therapy
- 70% eligible type 1 diabetes patients on continuous glucose monitoring systems
- Validated risk prediction model for diabetic ketoacidosis
- 67% decrease in self-injury in GENECIS program participants