

Serving North Texas as the Largest Pediatric Nephrology Program

Ranked No. 18
by U.S. News & World Report
for Pediatric Nephrology

Multidisciplinary Team of Experts

8 Pediatric Nephrologists 2 Social Workers
4 Advanced Practitioners 2 Child Life Specialists
2 Dietitians 2 Fellows

1 of 3
of the largest providers
of end stage renal
disease care in the U.S.

473
inpatient visits

4,505
outpatient visits

Average number of patients:

35
hemodialysis

29
peritoneal dialysis

2018 statistics from Dallas and Plano, Texas*

Game-Changing Research

11+ ongoing research studies and clinical trials

12 peer-reviewed publications in 2018

6 book chapters in 2018

Powerful Outcomes

World-renowned Experts

- Renal Development
- Chronic and Congenital Kidney Disease
- X-linked Hypophosphatemia
- Bone Disease
- Nephrotic Syndrome
- Hypertension
- Renal Tubular Disorders

721 acute hemodialysis procedures, inpatient
110 Continuous Veno-Venous Hemofiltration (CVVH)
22 renal transplants - live and cadaver

4 Dynamic Laboratories

- Baum Laboratory
- Gattineni Laboratory
- Wolf Laboratory
- Drake Laboratory

5 Clinical Services

- Hemodialysis
- Peritoneal Dialysis
- Inpatient Services
- Clinical Services
- Testing Services

Learn more at childrens.com/nephrology

Specialty care provided by UT Southwestern physicians